

Freedmen's Relief Association,

No. 424 WALNUT STREET, PHILADELPHIA.

Phil^a 23^d March 1864.

47

My dear Garrison

I think we have now got the Thompson meeting business fixed so that it will stay fixed.

I have telegraphed & written to ^{Mr. J.} ~~him~~, at 10 Chester Park York, that the "academy" is taken for Monday say the 4th of April.

Our leading course:
line and old - Philadelphia - family paper lead off in the card of invitation.

We shall have a union of the British & American banners in the drapery of the stage.

The students of our "Free Military School" (for the training of officers for ~~white~~ & black regiments) will occupy part of the platform.

Joseph Kelly (or John Stickman) will make the speech of introduction. You will come in at the end.

You said you would Come & we must hold you to it. Why not?

Mrs. Landon is better, & we shall be delighted to have you - at the meeting - & at our house. You said you would come & you must. Kingsham

doxism Ex; as said
the immortal - who can it was.

If you are not accustomed to that sort of Latin, let Frank cushie it

My best love to all

Your ever

Wm. McKim

Do you see the Press republishing? I found you a while ago to-day that you may see your self as others see you — looking like a gentleman and a fensible one at that.